AN EXCEPTIONAL PAIRING: SIP & SAVOUR ONTARIO LAUNCHES NEW PARTNERSHIP WITH HOUSELINK

Toronto, June 7, 2011... sip & Savour Ontario, an annual event featuring local wineries and chefs, is promoting a new pairing. Ontario's producers of fine food and VQA wines are staying focused on local as they join forces with Houselink, which provides homegrown housing solutions for people at risk of being homeless.

Houselink offers supportive housing and programs for people living with mental illness. With a goal of delivering quality of life to the people it serves, Houselink is groundbreaking in ensuring its residents and consumers play an active role in planning and decision-making.

"Houselink and sip & Savour Ontario share an important core belief," notes Tony Aspler, wine writer and partner of sip & Savour Ontario. "Both organizations recognize that quality of life is a local issue. We believe we derive the greatest benefit when we look to our own people and resources, be it for programs or for wines or food."

sip & Savour Ontario is planning a fundraiser in support of Houselink that will showcase more than 30 award-winning Ontario wineries, and regionally prepared food by top chefs. The event is to take place at Steam Whistle Brewing in Toronto on Wednesday, October 19, 2011.

Houselink owns 22 buildings in Toronto and supports over 500 people, including 60 families. Fundraising supports numerous programs geared towards mental health Recovery, including, community kitchens, employment opportunities, bursaries and social recreation activities.

"Houselink is proud to be partnering with sip & Savour Ontario. As a local charity, we are excited to collaborate and create a spectacular evening in October. The proceeds will provide new opportunities for individuals and families living with the impact of chronic mental illness and poverty," says Brian Davis, Executive Director of Houselink.

sip & Savour Ontario encourages consumer participation in the Ontario wine and food experience and plays a vital role in identifying the importance of a thriving culinary industry.

sip & Savour Ontario, in Support of Houselink – October 19, 2011

An evening dedicated to Ontario's Finest VQA Wines and Regional Cuisine

In the traditions of all great culinary regions, there are strong ties between regional wine and cuisine. This year, we will once again be showcasing this great tradition here in Ontario. The public will be able to experience and celebrate Ontario wine and food firsthand at sip & Savour Ontario on October 19th at Steam Whistle Brewing in Toronto from 7:30 pm to 10:00 pm. Some of Ontario's top chefs will bring the best and freshest foods Ontario has to offer. A portion of ticket sales, along with all silent auction proceeds and individual donations, will go directly to Houselink.

About sip & Savour Ontario

sip & Savour Ontario is dedicated to bringing education, support and accessibility of Ontario's local wine, culinary and agricultural industries to the public. This multi-faceted program raises consumer awareness about the outstanding VQA wine and local food products of Ontario. sip & Savour Ontario showcases the incredible quality and flavour available here in Ontario, while focusing on the vast benefits of supporting local industries and the people who are dedicated to producing them.

In 1995, Order of Canada recipient, Tony Aspler, founded the Ontario Wine Awards to recognize the growth and quality of the Ontario wine industry. Building on the success of the Ontario Wine Awards, sip & Savour Ontario was launched to publicly showcase VQA award-winning wines, and demonstrate to consumers the benefits of supporting the wine industry in their own province. sip & Savour Ontario has grown in size and stature over the years bringing the finest Ontario VQA wine and local food together. The main consumer event, sip & Savour Ontario, is an evening celebration of award-winning VQA wine, paired with market fresh Ontario food. Joined by exceptional Ontario chefs, this evening exposes Ontario restaurants, chefs, local food and VQA wine to the public. www.sipandsavourontario.ca
